EXAMINATION OF THE DIAMOND ROBBER BEFORE JUSTICE DOWLING—TESTIMONY OF THE BROKER AND THE ACCUSED'S ACCOMPLICE—THE PRISONER COM-MITTED TO THE TOMBS-INTERESTING DEVELOP with having conspired to murder and rob Borden W. Tumb, the diamond broker, of No. 512 Broadway, was brought before Justice Dowling, at the Lower neterest was manifested in the case, and during the investigation the court room was crowded to suffocation almost. The prisoner took the matter quite cooily, and regarded the proceedings with refreshing indifference. He insisted that the newspapers had called him by his wrong name, and that he was a samesake of the eminent divine who for so many years bed forth at Plymouth church, Brocklyn. The camina tion commenced with the introduction of the complainant's evidence, who testified as follows:—

Borden W. Plumb, diamond broker, of No. 512 Broad way, deposed that the prisoner paid him a number of visits at his place of business during the past three weeks. The prisoner presented that he was anxious to buy a lot of diamends tor his wife, and said he would call on Tuesday morning and examine the stock. On Tuesday morning, between nine and ten o'clock, the prisoner called pursuing the past three works. The prisoner had not be said be would bring his wife along and let her said he would bring his wife along and let her said he would bring his wife along and let her said he would bring his wife, and closing the door after him, advanced towards complainant, and requested the pleasure of examining a ring which he had upon his finger. Complainant few back his hand as if in alarm, when the prisoner picked up a dagger, which was lying on the table. and carciessly asked 'What is that for?" Complainant made no answer, but quickly suntched the weapon from the prisoner's hand, where-spon the latter became alarmed, as it were, and fled from the room. Four days previous to the occurrence of the above event complainant was told by Sergeant Young, of the detective and for him of his diamonds, and that he should have to keep a sharp look out for the accused.

Henry Hock, alins George W. Howard, the confederate of Curtis in the alleged conspiracy, testified that he lived at No. 64 Whitehal street; met the prisoner a laucester. Pa., some six months ago, and atopped at the same hotel with him for a day and angle the sout of the wolle kers were glad to get money at seven per cent. At the close of bank hours, however, there was a sensible relaxation in the market, and the indications were that thing would move more smoothly to-morrow. The Sub-Treasury is disbursing pretty freely, and $19,000,000 stand to the credit of disbursing officers, the whole of which will be paid out within a day or two. Under these circumstances the stringency which has been so much complained of during the past two days cannot last. Rumors have been current of negotiations between the Sub-Treasurer and the banks with a view to the withdrawal of part of the temporary deposits. We have the best authority for stating that nothing of the kind is yet contemplated, though the Sub-Treasurer has agreed to waive the ten days' notice, and to receive certificates of deposit in payment of checks from any bank which is short of currency. The banks, however, are well aware that such active money markets as we have had for the past two days always have the effect of bringing a good deal of money into the street for emporary employment. The appearance of affairs this afternoon rather led to the idea that we have seen the worst of the flurry in money for the pre-

The rumor of the fall of Vicksburg, though no generally credited, affected the gold market this morning, and the price of coin fell to 140%, while bankers' bills sold at 163½ a ½—considerably lower, as usual, than gold. Later in the day there was a slight rally, and coin sold at 140%, and bills at 154% a %. At the close gold was 140% a %. There is little or no speculation in gold and bills, and the inquiry for remittance is extremely light. There was quite a panicky feeling in the market this morning, caused mainly by the tightness of the money market. Weak holders were freely slaughtered by their brokers, and the decline was accelerated by the offerings of parties who in such markets always want to sell everything short. At the morning board Pacific Mail fell off 2 per cent, New York Central 11/4, Erie 21/4, Erie preferred Michigan Central 1½, Southern old 1½, Illinois Central 2½, Pittsburg 1½, guaranteed 3, Galena 1½, Toledo 1, Rock Island 1 and Fort Wayne 1½. The fall was heaviest on the New York shares. Bonds of all classes were lower; the land grants of the Mississippi and Missouri fell 4 per cent.

Governments were steady. At the close of the board there was a sharp rally, which lasted throughout the one P. M. call. Stocks rose from 1 to 11/2 per cent. Toledo jumped up suddenly from 106 to 112. The morning's decline appeared to have pretty thoroughly cleared out the weak men, and to have begun to bring in new buyers. The old corrators, who have been out of stocks for some time, took advantage of to-day's fall to effect some purchases, picking out the stocks which have fallen the most-Harlem, for instance, which has fallen thirty per cent within a few days. Such a fall as this is pretty sure, in any event, to be followed by an upward reaction. In the afternoon the whole market was ½ a 1 per cent better, and there was a good deal of competition for the popular shares. The improved feeling lasted throughout the afternoon, and at the four P. M. call there was quite an inquiry for stocks at a further advance of 1/4 a 1 per cent-Erie 931/4, Harlem 90%, &c. The following were the closing quotations of the day:-

The receipts at the Sub-Treasury to-day were as follows:-

the Cleveland and Toledo which may lead to the exclusion of the stock of that company from the board list. The books closed some time ago, to be opened, as was stated in the official advertisement, on the 18th of June. This afternoon the board was nowified that the books would reopen to-morrow, the 11th, and parties who had bought stock "for the opening" were expected to deliver it to-morrow. So extraordinary a manœuvre created the greatest indignation in the board, and a committee was at once appointed to report on the subject. The decision will undoubtedly be that all contracts made "for the opening" must run till the 18th. Such other action will be taken as may seem appropriate.
